SSSSSh... Captivating Gozo!

www.visitmalta.com

Small and beautiful as it is, Gozo cannot be seen in just one day.

As a place to relax, 'hang out' and live the good life the island is unsurpassed. After you set foot on Gozo, you'll know why you need more than just a day to savour its leisurely charms. The more you enjoy your visit to Gozo, the more likely you are to return, and to recommend the island to others.

If you are intrigued by this beautiful island's ability to create 'Gozo fanatics' like ourselves, then plan a visit. We always stay for more than just a day. It's the secret hideaway of all Maltese. Which is why we would prefer to leave it undiscovered by you. But it's in our nature to share the best we have with visitors.

The Saluting Battery, Valletta

Sited at Valletta's best vantage point under the Upper Barracca Gardens and overlooking the Grand Harbour, the Saluting Battery is still equipped with original cannon. In the past, it served both to defend the harbour and as an official ceremonial platform from where gun salutes would be fired to honour visiting dignitaries or vessels to Malta. For hundreds of years, it also doubled as the official public time marker from where a gun was fired at sunrise, noon and sunset to provide the public with the exact hour of the day. The first and last soundings indicated the time when all town gates where to be opened or closed. The noon-day round was meant for mariners to calibrate their timepieces on board for navigational reasons. After all these centuries, the old tradition of firing a gun at noon (12pm) still takes place here daily. Guided tours of the battery are offered before and after the display at 11am and 12.30pm. Open: Daily 10am and 1.30pm. Free transport from this site to the Malta at War Museum and Fort Rinella leaves daily at 12.15 and 1.15pm.

Fort Rinella, Kalkara

Fort Rinella is Malta's only historic live-museum. It is a unique example of late 19th century military engineering in being built as a steam-powered mechanical war machine to house and power the world's largest gun ever made – the Armstrong 100-ton gun. This gun still survives in this fort. In its time, it could fire a one-ton shell up to a distance of 8-miles at which range it could pierce 21 inches of ship armour.

This fort has been painstakingly restored by volunteers back to its original state. A historical re-enactment takes place here daily at 2.30pm recreating aspects of the daily life of the Victorian garrison. This includes live cannon and musket firing. A brand new audiovisual is also available which outlines the colourful history of the fort and its monstrous gun. Open: Daily between 10.00am and 5.00pm. Guided tours and film shows are offered on the hour till 1.00pm after which there will be the historical re-enactment. Directions: Bus No.4 to Kalkara from Valletta bus station or follow signs to Three Cities and local signs to fort.

Malta at War Museum, Vittoriosa

A vast wartime underground air raid shelter formed by a labyrinth of hand excavated tunnels. Used throughout WWII as a regional civil protection centre and underground accommodation for some 500 persons during the raids. The interior of this property has been faithfully restored and reconstructed to its original state. Entrance is from Couvre Porte Gate, Vittoriosa (across from the bus station) through a permanent display of original artefacts dedicated to the daily life in wartime Malta. This Museum also comprises a wartime movie produced in 1942 by the Crown Film Unit on the express wish of H.M. King George VI to document the heroic stand of the Maltese during the conflict. Length of film is 20mins. Open Daily 10am – 4pm. All buses to Vittoriosa or follow signs to Three Cities and then local signs to museum.

FREE TRANSPORT is offered from the Saluting Battery to the Malta at War Museum and Fort Rinella daily departing at 12.15 and 1.15pm. Intermediate free trips are also available between the last two attractions throughout the day. Tel. 21800992, 21803091; email: bookings@wirtartna.org; www.wirtartna.org

Evolution of Form

Herman Ciappara will be exhibiting a collection of figurative sculptures that he has been working on during the last few years. The human form has become the prominent theme that drives his works and although his sculptures have varied greatly, this exhibition will focus entirely on contemporary works. This collection embodies the evolution of Herman's style as he explores the classical human form and transforms it into more stylised and abstract shapes. Herman is inspired from everyday life, from watching people around him and the way they interact with each other. However, he is mostly inspired from watching dancers performing

Malta: Bays and Harbours

An exhibition of watercolour paintings by Joe Pace Ross.

The artist's preferred medium is transparent watercolours, which lend themselves beautifully to depicting the azure waters and honey coloured bastion walls rising from the harbours of Malta. The local Luzzu, so common in Maltese fishing villages, also figures well in Joe Pace Ross's paintings.

The vivid luzzu colours, which have become typical and exclusive to Malta and Gozo, are excellently reflected in clear translucent seas. Galleys, vessels, warships and boats in general - both old and modern - are also a favourite subject of the artist who portrays faithfully these frequent visitors to our Island.

Consapevolezza

C.S. Lawrence could be pigeon-holed as a portrait artist but that would be short-changing her: Her subject matter ranges from her portraits, for which she has become renowned, to landscapes and figurative compositions. Although her work is immediately identifiable, it is a challenge to define the style that marks her art. Style becomes secondary to innovative exploration as she constantly pushes the envelope of her creative boundaries. Whatever the outcome, the sincerity and intensity of this artist's personal self-expression and journey of discovery through the medium of art is unmistakable.

It was under the gentle guidance of her art teacher that she started developing her talent and discovered that life could be better fulfilled through artistic expression that gave satisfaction not only to herself but enjoyment to whoever shared in her work. Although Alexia is versatile in various subjects that include portrait, still life and animals, her great passion is for marine and landscape studies that are forever a source of fascination.

A Diary of Obsessions

John Busuttill Leaver is exhibiting 22 works planned and painted over a period ranging from 3 to 10 years. Some of these paintings refer to femininity but without using the nude. Others express disappointment with over urbanization, and some use the tree as a symbol of harmony and wisdom "lost". Other obsessive themes are the bastions, cliffs and Yungian archetypes such as "boats" and "birds", expressed with an original technical twist.

De-Coding Beauty

Art exhibition by George Scicluna. This exhibition shows sketches dating back to the early 90's when George's distinctive style was beginning to emerge.

He then moved on to large-scale monochrome paintings that depict the statues of the Old Masters. Characteristic of the next period is a series of paintings 'composition of a girl' which carry the style further on. Following this phase, one then arrives at the most recent paintings where colour becomes more prominent.

Voices - Tell Me Why

VOICES was originally set up in 1991 by the late Louis Naudi, together with Adrian Mamo, Tony Vella and Sue Weenink. They organised a musical event that allowed young people to express their musical talents in a positive way, to celebrate the beauty of life and give joy to others with a spirit of altruism. Since then, Voices has continued to grow in popularity and success but has always kept this underlying 'spirit of Voices' very much alive. Everyone involved, from the choir members, to the band, back stage, front of house, as well as the committee, participate purely on a voluntary basis. The concerts are held every two years with the aim of raising funds which are then distributed to a number of charitable institutions. Tell Me Why is the title of this year's edition - why the poverty, why the violence, why the drugs, why the ignorance. This year, the committee has decided that 50% of the funds collected will be dedicated to a major project, which aims to emphasise and reinforce the possibility of a positive approach to a more 'healthy' lifestyle, using music and arts as a focal point.

La Bohème

La Bohème is an opera in four acts by Giacomo Puccini. The world première performance of La Bohème was in Turin on February 1, 1896 at the Teatro Regio and conducted by the young Arturo Toscanini. La Bohème - a first for resident conductor Colin Attard, includes a superb cast headed by internationally acclaimed Maltese soprano Lydia Caruana as Mimi. Giorgio Casciari in the role of Rodolfo (the poet) will head the male quadruple flanked by Marzio Giossi (Marcello - painter), Romano Franceschetto (Schaunard - musician) and Noel Galea (Colline - philosopher). The latter three are no new faces for the Aurora. Another new face will be Christiane Boesiger who will be interpreting the dynamic and demanding role of Musetta. This international cast will be complemented by the Aurora Opera Chorus, which this year also includes a junior section.

More Four Play

A collection of hilarious sketches ranging from musical comedy, to satire, to in-your-face slapstick - a formula that's guaranteed to give everyone a fun night out at the theatre! The sketches have been devised by Alan Montanaro, James Calvert, Nanette Brimmer Malcolm Galea with the adaptation of couple of British comedy classics thrown in for good measure. The sketches and musical numbers will be played at break-neck speed by just four actors. But these are not just any old actors... MADC has roped in four of the island's leading comics to pull off this festival of laughs - Alan Montanaro, Isabel Warrington, Louise Vassallo and newcomer (to the troupe) Alan Paris. This uproarious show is being directed by Herman Grech, Denise Mulholland, Wesley Ellul and James Calvert. Censor: 18 Years & Over.

The 29th edition of the Rolex Middle Sea Race will start of from the waters opposite the Royal Malta Yacht Club in Marsamxett Harbour and thousands of people gather on either side of this imposing harbour to enjoy this spectacle of sail. The start line in the Harbour is arguably the most spectacular of any yacht race in the world, but it is narrow and so the race committee phase the fleet into various divisions, starting with the smallest and graduating up to the Maxis. The Rolex Middle Sea Race is a highly rated offshore classic, often mentioned in the same breath as the Rolex Fastnet, The Rolex Sydney - Hobart and Newport-Bermuda as a "must do" race.

Gardens

Upper and Lower Barrakka Gardens

Two gardens, facing the Grand Harbour in Valletta, both offering a panoramic view. The Upper Barrakka Gardens offer the best view since they're more centered and at a much higher level. It was the gift of an eighteenth-century knight. The Anglican Garrison Church partly intrudes upon it. The garden is built on top of a demi-bastion. The Lower Barrakka Gardens are part of St Christopher's Bastion and have a view of the harbour. At their center is a small Greek-style folly built in memory of Governor Sir Alexander Ball, who led the siege against the French in 1800 and subsequently became Britain's first civil commissioner of Malta. The French during the 1798-1800 siege cultivated these gardens.

Argotti Botanical Gardens

In 1805 the British governor appointed a Carmelite friar, Malta's first professor of natural history. He assembled the plants in Floriana's Mall and 50 years later they were moved to the site of the present Argotti Gardens, then the preserve of a deceased knight.

Palazzo Parisio Gardens

These privately owned gardens rank amongst the finest in Malta and have seasonal appeal all year round.

The two classic, baroque walled gardens are a charming mixture of Italian symmetry and Mediterranean colour and perfumes.
